Taste of the Golden Triangle Extensions

3 Days / 2 Nights Ranthambore Extension

Ranthambore National Park

Ranthambore National Park is one of the largest national parks in Northern India, best known for its tigers and one of the best places in India to see them. A good time to visit Ranthambore National Park is between November and May when deciduous forests (once part of the magnificent Jungles of Central India) dry out, making it easier to see the animals. Other major wildlife to look out for include leopard, nilgai, dhole, wild boar, sambar, hyena, sloth bear and chital, as well as a wide variety of trees, plants, birds and reptiles.

PRICE PER PERSON FROM:

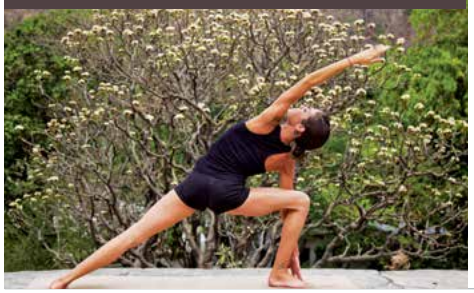
Superior $1,000*
Luxury $2,800*

PRICE INCLUDES:

- 2 nights accommodation
- All meals
- 3 shared jeep safaris
- Transfers using AC Vehicle

 Park closes 30 June - 30 Sept subject to monsoons*

4 Days / 3 Nights Rishikesh Extension



Rishikesh

Rishikesh is a city located in the foothills of the Himalayas in northern India, and is known as The Gateway to the Garhwal Himalayas. Ever since the Beatles rocked up the ashram of the Maharishi Mahesh Yogi in the late '60s, Rishikesh has been a magnet for spiritual seekers. Today it styles itself as the 'Yoga Capital of the World' – with some justification – as there is an abundance of ashrams with all kinds of yoga and meditation classes. Rishikesh is also now a popular whitewater rafting centre, backpacker hangout, and gateway for treks in the Himalayas.

PRICE PER PERSON FROM:

Superior $925*
Luxury $1,800*

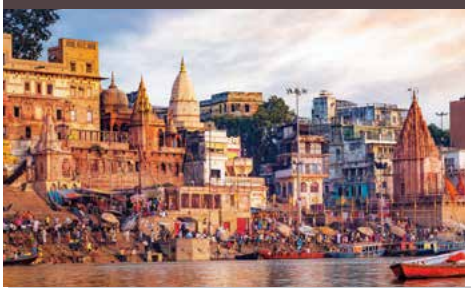
3 Days / 2 Nights Varanasi Extension



Varanasi

Varanasi, is one of the oldest living cities in the world. It is situated on the banks of the holy River Ganges. The culture of Varanasi is closely associated with the River Ganges and the River's religious importance. People often refer to Varanasi as "the city of temples," "the holy city of India," "the religious capital of India," "the city of lights," "the city of learning" and the "culture capital of India". American writer Mark Twain wrote, "Benares is older than history, older than tradition, older even than legend, and looks twice as old as all of them put together."
