Richard's June East Africa Safari

PERSONALLY GUIDED BY RICHARD RUSKIN
Departing 28 June, 2027

Owner and MD of African Travel Specialists, Richard Ruskin, guides his favourite event of the year – the annual Wildebeest Migration. Having guided during the Migration every year for the past 24 years, Richard can attest to it being one of the most exciting events in the world. Highlights of this safari include a first-class rail journey from Nairobi into Tsavo, the elephant herds of Amboseli, a full-day safari in the Ngorongoro Crater, three nights in the Serengeti, where the wildebeest migration is usually located at this time of year, and a flight into the Masai Mara offering a wonderful array of animals and an option of a hot-air balloon safari. Enjoy handpicked accommodation in tented camps, lodges and hotels throughout. This is a wonderful way to see the wildebeest migration, as well as remarkable wildlife and birdlife, all in the care of our professional safari guide, Richard Ruskin.

What our clients say...

"What an extraordinary adventure — from the moment we arrived, every detail was thoughtfully planned and seamlessly executed by Richard Ruskin and the team at African Travel Specialists. The wildlife was simply breathtaking: elephants, lions, giraffes, a cheetah on a kill, enormous migrating herds — unforgettable close-up encounters at every turn. Our lodges were exceptional, each with its own character and spectacular setting. Richard's guiding was first-class, with an incredible depth of knowledge and an uncanny ability to spot wildlife. But what truly set this journey apart was the warmth and hospitality shown to us everywhere we travelled. Thank you for an experience filled with wonder, laughter, and memories that will last a lifetime." - KEIRAN, June 2026.
